

Bachelor of Arts in Political Science

SAMPLE POLITICAL SCIENCE COURSES

Politics in the United States

Students will focus on major philosophical concepts that shaped government in the United States combined with an analysis of contemporary political institutions and behavior, focusing on the American governmental system. Four-credit sections include Washington laboratory experiences.

Comparative Politics

Students will focus on how different societies have approached the political problems of order and responsiveness. Students will explore the relationships, in a cross-cultural perspective, between the individual and the state; social and economic processes; and culture and behavior.

Individual Freedom vs. Authority

Students will focus on the study of major philosophical discussions of the conflict between individual freedom and authority with analysis of the relation between this conflict and the problem of organizing a government.

Introduction to Political Research

An introduction to political science research, including the logic of analysis, research design, and the basics of quantitative analysis. Application of gathering data and of analytic and statistical techniques to contemporary political problems. Usually Offered: fall, spring, and summer.

SPA's BA in Political Science program focuses on government and public affairs as an aspect of a broad liberal arts education. It prepares the student for an enlightened role in national, community, and world affairs. This program provides a foundation in American Politics, Comparative Politics, and Political Theory. From this foundation, you can choose from the six concentrations offered:

- American Government
- Comparative Politics
- Gender, Race & Politics
- Law & Politics
- Policy
- Political Theory

Read on to find out if this undergraduate major can help you work towards your career goals.

SCHOOL of PUBLIC AFFAIRS
AMERICAN UNIVERSITY • WASHINGTON, DC

Students learn from top lobbyists, diplomats, and elected officials in Brussels, Belgium, the de facto administrative capital of the European Union.

Study Abroad Opportunities

- Students may study abroad between their second semester of sophomore year through their senior year.
- It is strongly recommended that students complete the majority of their university requirements before studying abroad
- Some popular study abroad destinations are:
 - » Australia » Belgium » Canada » China » Denmark
 - » England » Ireland » Israel » Netherlands
 - » New Zealand » Scotland
- The number of study abroad credits accepted into the major will vary. Students should work with their academic advisor to discuss individual programs.

Internship Opportunities

- Students can earn up to 12 credits from internships toward their degree.
- Students can apply a maximum of 6 credits to their major requirements.
- Students must have junior class standing, complete a pre-requisite course, have departmental permission, and a minimum 2.5 GPA before registering an internship for credit.
- Sample internships include: » Brookings Institution
 - » White House » Human Rights Campaign
 - » Washington Monument » Center for Education Reform

Scholarly Research Opportunities

In Introduction to Political Research, students learn research design and methods of quantitative analysis used toward the empirical study of contemporary political problems.

Students will have opportunities to engage in scholarly research in advanced courses, to work with faculty members on research projects, and to present their original research at campus symposia or national conferences.

Publication opportunities for original student research papers abound, with multiple peer-reviewed journals published at American University.

WE KNOW SUCCESS

Graduates from Public Affairs have gone on to employers and graduate/law schools like:

- Campaign Legal Center
- Goldman Sachs
- Public Defenders
- NJI Media
- The Washington Post
- U.S. Department of Defense
- American Gaming Association
- NBCUniversal, Inc.
- National Wildlife Federation
- U.S. Department of Justice
- National Republican Congressional Committee
- D.C. Public Schools
- American University Washington College of Law
- Columbia University
- Fordham University
- George Washington University
- Georgetown University
- Harvard University
- Johns Hopkins University
- London School of Economics
- Pennsylvania State University
- University of Chicago
- University of Virginia

QUESTIONS?

Contact

School of Public Affairs Student Services

202-885-6200

Email: aupublicaffairs@american.edu